CALL FOR VENUES
8TH ELIA TEACHERS’ ACADEMY 2017
Deadline 1 March 2016

ELIA will organise its 8th Teachers’ Academy in 2017 and is calling upon its members to nominate a venue.

The ELIA Teachers’ Academy is usually organised in spring and attracts roughly 150 delegates - professors, researchers, teachers and lecturers from all artistic disciplines and fields of expertise- giving the host institute(s) a unique opportunity to present themselves to higher art education institutes from Europe and beyond. The host institute’s teachers and students are encouraged to be involved in the conference. For more information please visit the Teachers’ Academy website: www.eliateachersacademy.org

Before starting the co-operation an agreement will be signed between ELIA and the Host. The budget will be jointly agreed and is generally estimated on € 105,000 from which the Host guarantees to raise a minimum amount of €80,000 nationally and locally (a part of this amount can be ‘in kind’). ELIA guarantees to raise a minimum amount of €25,000 in participation fees and European grants.

Organising the event is a joint venture, but a general division of the tasks is anticipated as follows:

Host
• Arranges venues for conference
• Secures national and local funding and sponsorship
• Is an active partner in the steering committee and in developing the programme
• Appoints a local coordinator
• Organises the cultural programme
• Local/National promotion and PR
• Organises the logistics such as catering, hotel bookings etc

ELIA
• Organises the programme as decided upon by the steering committee (speakers, sessions, etc)
• Responsible for all communications, reporting and publications
• Prepares work/time schedules and budget
• Disseminates Call for Presentations
• Secures participation fees and EU funding
• Recruits and registers participants

To nominate your institution, please write an application in which you outline why you wish to be the host of the 8th ELIA Teachers’ Academy. Please explain the venue possibilities, the financial support and possible partnerships you foresee. The ELIA Executive Group will select the venue. Deadline for proposals is 1 March 2016.
